

DISCIPLINE CASE REPORT: 2017-05

SVMA Discipline Committee

On May 14, 2019, the Discipline Committee of the Saskatchewan Veterinary Medical Association (SVMA) convened a hearing to determine an outcome in case #2017-05, a complaint referred to the Discipline Committee by the Professional Conduct Committee against Dr Kevin Anderson.

The complaint involved Dr Anderson's having failed to correct deficiencies in a veterinary practice for which he was the veterinarian of record and having failed to maintain adequate veterinary medical records.

The Discipline Committee agreed to accept the terms of a joint submission agreement between the Professional Conduct Committee and Dr Anderson with the following terms:

That Dr Anderson

1. Be required to pay fines totaling $900.00 to the SVMA by July 20, 2019.
2. Be required to pay costs capped at $60,000.00 to the SVMA by July 20, 2019.
3. Be required to complete a veterinary medical record-keeping course that is recommended and approved by the SVMA Registrar and that he provide proof of completion to the Registrar by November 15, 2019.
4. Receive a letter of reprimand.
