

What do Vets
and Vet Techs do?

Do you have a pet?
Have you ever taken your pet to see a doctor?
Your pet's doctor is called a veterinarian.
There are also veterinary care providers like nurses,
called veterinary technologists.

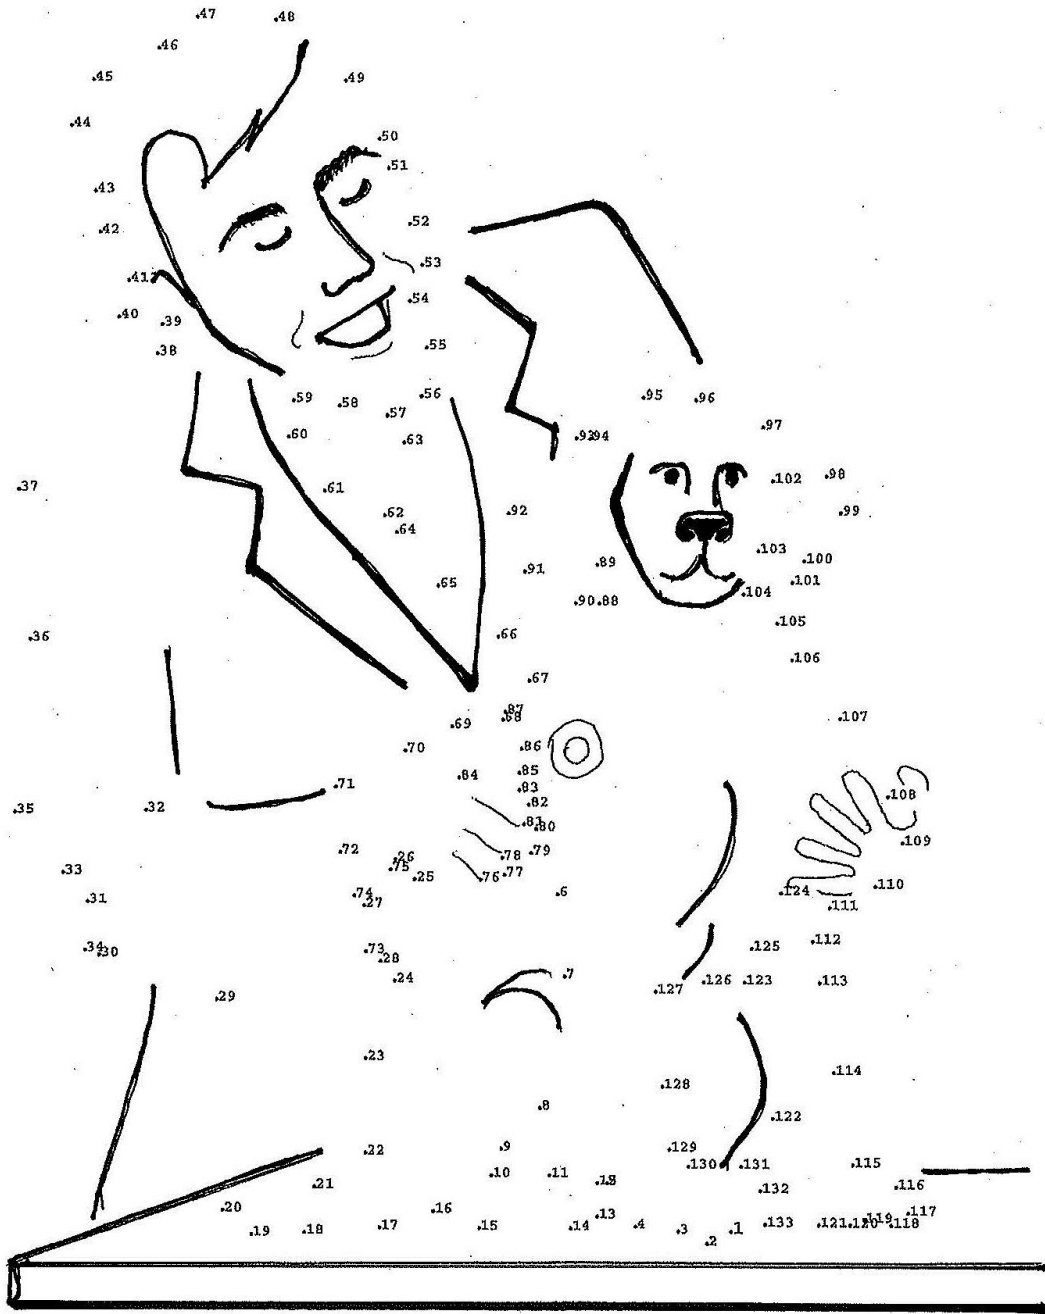

Sometimes pets are scared to go to the veterinary clinic. Lots of love, encouragement and a positive attitude will make the experience much better!

Vets and vet techs work together to provide medical care for animals. They take care of our pets to keep them healthy and happy.

Connect the dots!

Just like you, animals need regular check-ups and vaccinations.

I'm slippery, live in water, and breathe out of the top of my head.

When the sun comes up, I wake up everyone on the farm.

I bark to get your attention.

I purr when I'm happy.

I'm big and have a nose called a "trunk."

I live where it's cold and I am the colour of snow.

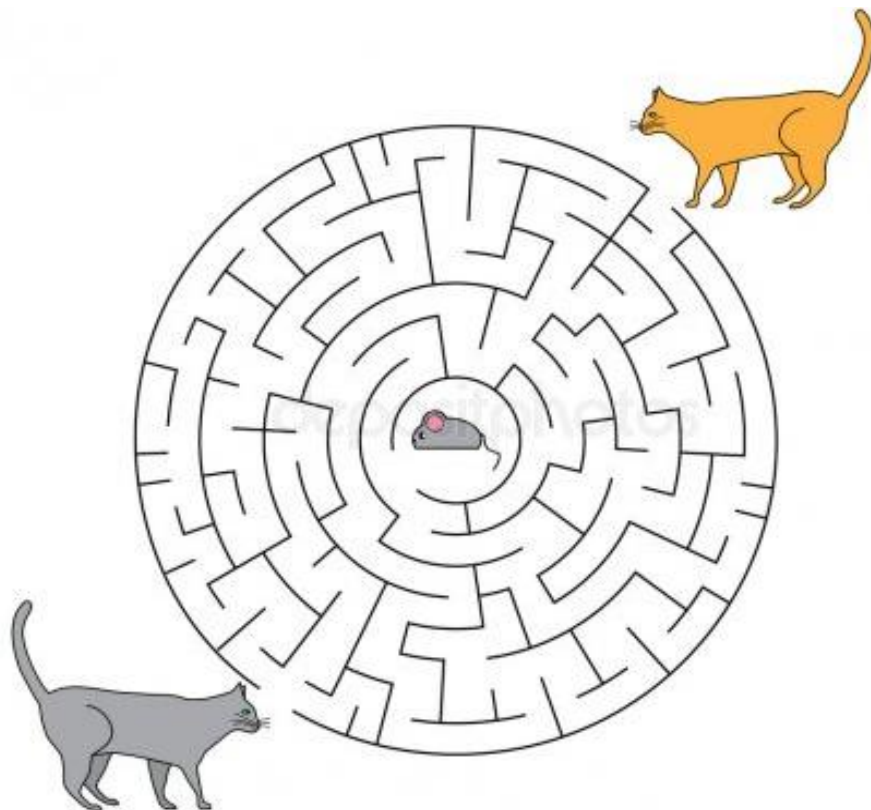

I have wings but can't fly.

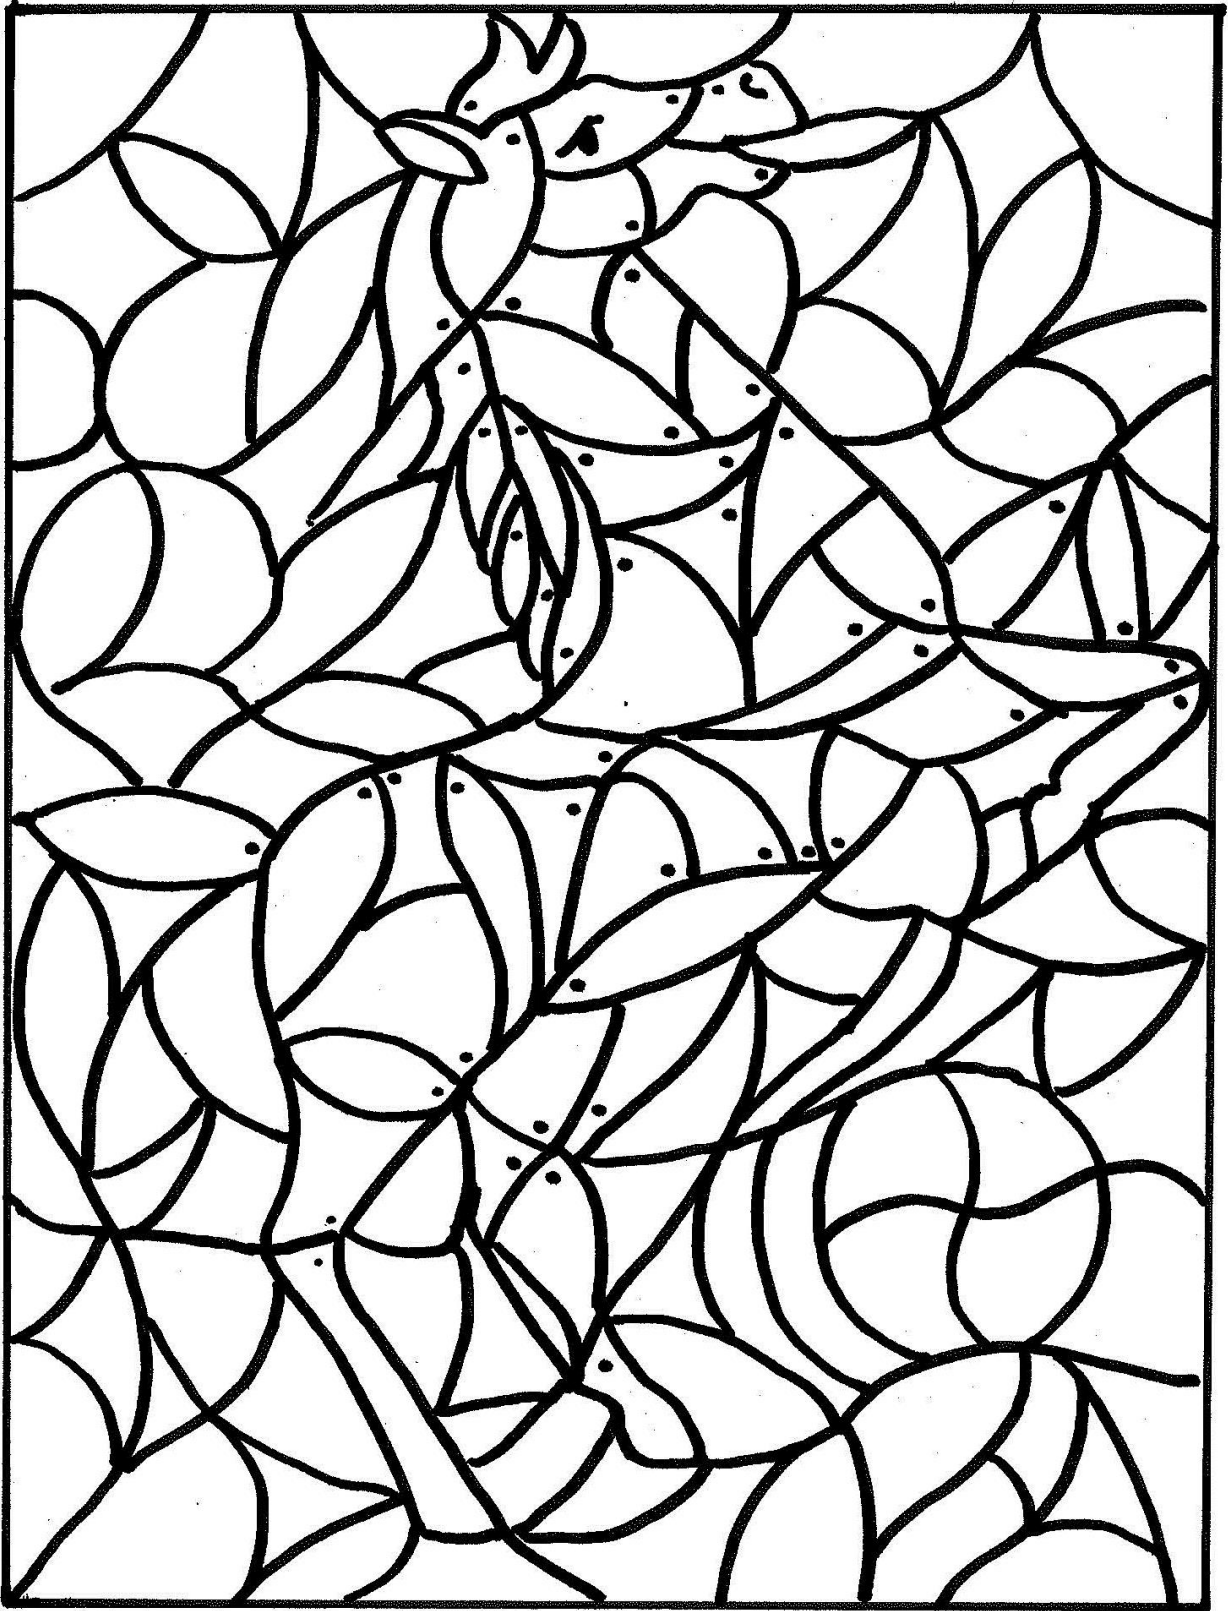

Just like you, animals need exercise.
